

Lewis and Clark Homecoming
Clarksville Heritage Festival
November 3, 4, and 5, 2006
George Rogers Clark Cabin Home Site
Harrison Avenue, Clarksville, Indiana
(I-65, Exit 1, follow signs)

Friday, November 3, 2006

10:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. Children's School Field Trips
Noon – Lunch with Thomas Jefferson, Re-enactor, Holiday Inn
Lakeview Cost: $10.00 (I-65 Exit 1, Stansifer Avenue)
2:00 p.m. Jeffersonville Township Library Lewis and Clark Fountain
Dedication, Court Ave., Jeffersonville (I-65 Exit 0, 5 blocks)
6:00 p.m. Dinner with Lewis and Clark and the Corps of Discovery, Holiday Inn Lakeview, Meriwether Lewis and William Clark and other re-enactors sharing their stories of 1803-1806 and how they retraced the journey in 2003-2006. Cost $15.00

Saturday, November 4, and Sunday, November 5, 2006

Re-enactors camp setup with events all day – Learn the 1803 way of life.
Oxen Cart rides for kids! Tour the historic area as they did in 1803!
Exciting Cannon firing! Hear the roar across the rushing river!
Historic displays and exhibits, and a Fashion Show of Period Dress Ursuline Sisters of Mount Saint Joseph, dressed in period clothes, give tours of their world famous Flatboat, used to retrace their journey to settle in this area over 130 years ago!
Discovery Group of St. Charles Lewis and Clark re-enactors set up camp
“Duel of Honor” and “Recruitment of the Nine Young Men”
1803 Period Artisans, Physician, Soap makers, Militia, Spinners, and Violin maker demonstrating their skills! Buy their wares!
Period Music and Singing!
Dedication of Clarksville's new Lewis and Clark Park, Sunday, 2:00 p.m.
State of Indiana Trail Resolution Presentation to Federal and State Officials Initial Point Chapter Society of Professional Surveyors Dedication of the Re-survey of the original town boundary
Children's games of 1803, Kettle Corn, candy apples, BBQ, Great Food!
6:00 Barbecue Dinner $10.00 Meet Lewis and Clark, the Corps of Discovery and other re-enactors around the campfire!

Soak up the history on the banks of the Ohio River in Clarksville, Indiana where it all began!

Information: 502-419-5341 or 812-949-9338

